Voices from the Wall

.49 Grain

VERSE 1: Cold feeling unknown
This time and place is not my home

If they're leaving, they're not meant to stay
This burning wreckage is all I'll ever know
Do they rest in peace?

VERSE 2: All aboard this sinking ship
Plug the holes with my friend's souls

Yes they're leaving, they're not meant to stay
This burning wreckage is all I'm gonna know
Do they rest in peace?

POST-VERSE: Yes I'm hearing voices
Voices from the wall

PRE-CHORUS 1: Million more years and million more lies aboard this sinking ship
Plug the holes with my friend's souls, I?m fucking done with it

CHORUS: All gave some
And some gave all
They pay the Rubik's toll

Some gave sons that took the fall
They play the dogs of war

All gave some
And some gave all
Their names in marble scrawled

Some gave sons just like before
They create the dogs of war

VERSE 3: Don't you forget me
I know years they move on

Yes I'm leaving, I'm here to stay
November will always be a part of me

POST-VERSE

PRE-CHORUS 2: Million more years and million more lies
It's still the same old shit
You plugged the holes with my friend's souls and I wont forget it
