Alright im bout to do this lil intro thing
Alright ayo, what's up yall?
Its the kid Mac Miller
That high school rapper yall love
For a lot of yall its your first time meeting me
And for a lot of yall, yall been listenin for a little bit
I just want to tell everybody this
This hip hop shit right here, I live it

100% point blank motherfuckin' period
I aint got no other options
I aint got no backup plan
This is it for me
Everything I spit on a track that's my life
And how I see shit
So welcome to the motherfuckin jukebox
Lay back in ya seat, spark a L, call your favorite shorty over,
We gone have a good time
It's only getting better from here Q
(Haha)
