Give It Up

Clinton Washington

I wanna write you a love song
To let you know I'm wrong
Taking you for granted
Left you empty handedI wanna bottle these emotions
You make me wanna swim oceans
To get closer to you
And start something newBut I've made mistakes
But this is what true love takesGive it up give it up for this melody
Give it up give it up for my clarity
Putting it all down in words that'll make you feel
Play it all with chords that'll healLeaving it all on the paper
Throwing it all down on the table
Spin this record, hear the sound
Face the music and sing it loudI wanna prove myself to you
What do I have to do
I'll make all the right moves
That I promise youBut I've made mistakes
But this is what true love makesGive it up give it up for your sanity
Give it up give it up for my clarity
Putting it all down in words that'll make you feel
Play it all with chords that'll heal
