

Lie To Me

12 Stones

Our candle burns away
The ashes full of lies
I gave my soul to you
You cut me from behind No where to run and no where to hide
You're scared of the truth, I'm tired of the lies
'Cause who I am is where you wanna be Don't act like an angel
You're fallin' again
You're no superhero
I've found in the end So lie to me once again
And tell me everything will be alright
Lie to me once again
And ask yourself before we say goodbye
Well, goodbye, was it worth it in the end? You said you were there for me
You wouldn't let me fall
All the times I shared with you
Were you even there at all? Nowhere to run and no where to hide
You're scared of the truth, I'm tired of the lies
'Cause who I am is where you wanna be Don't act like an angel
You're fallin' again
You're no superhero
I've found in the end So lie to me once again
And tell me everything will be alright
Lie to me once again
And ask yourself before we say goodbye
Well, goodbye, was it worth it in the end? Why'd you have to up and run away?
A million miles away
I wanna close my eyes and make believe
That I never found you Just when I put my guard away
It's the same old story
You left me broken and betrayed
It's the same old story Don't act like an angel
You're fallin' again
You're no superhero
I've found in the end So lie to me once again
And tell me everything will be alright
Lie to me once again
And ask yourself before we say goodbye
Well, goodbye, was it worth it in the end? Lie to me once again
It's the same old story

Lie to me once again
It's the same old story
Was it worth it in the end?
