

Elevator Is Out of Order, Please Use Jacob's Ladder

Andrea Gail

Where is the Garden of Eden?
We search for it
We try to find
We try to grow
What do you think about it? Break! Broken hopes leave us uncertain
We're walking quite a distant road
To make this all come true
To see the sun, to talk to God,
But we discovered that Jacob's Ladder breaks! Erect the monument to the ideals
Maybe it will soothe you
And maybe not
However act firmly and don't stick to the rules Resemblance to the experience
Seems to be non-erasable
I do not understand
Whose joke was that? What are we to do now?
Where is our fortune? This kind of perplexity
Leaves us uncertain
We'll not leave this place
Until we find another one
Another ladder Keep your eyes open, pals!
Keep your hearts pure!
