Out Of Range

Red Hot Chili Peppers

Leaving town, I found a flower that I could desert
Someone moves and someone's bound to get their feelings hurt
I'm loving you, you're out of range
Wanted you, you're out of rangeAs I walked out into a world I feel a sudden chill
Oh, I was bleeding put it good onto a daffodil
Loving you, you're out of range
Wanted to, you're out of rangeI don't want too much more than
Than to be reborn in the morning
Reborn so I can feel you
The thorns of Bougainvillea, I feel youI have your number and I dialed it up a hundred times
Barely there you're voice is cracking up a cross dead lines
Loving you, you're out of range
Wanted you, you're out of rangeSkies of ecstasy we're breaking while I do believe
The tears of God were falling down upon my swollen cheeks
Loving you, you're out of range
Wanted to, you're out of rangeI don't want too much more than
Than to be reborn in the morning
Reborn so I can feel ya
The thorns of Bougainvillea, I feel youI know it hurts when it's taken away
I tell you that I could be living
Today with you or without you, okay
Washed by the rain and it's all gonna changeI don't want too much more than
Than to be reborn in the morning
Reborn so I can feel ya
The thorns of Bougainvillea, I feel youNo sir, not too much more than
Than to be reborn in the morning
Reborn so I can feel ya
The thorns of Bougainvillea, I feel you
