

Out Of Range

Red Hot Chili Peppers

Leaving town, I found a flower that I could desert
Someone moves and someone's bound to get their feelings hurt
I'm loving you, you're out of range
Wanted you, you're out of range As I walked out into a world I feel a sudden chill
Oh, I was bleeding put it good onto a daffodil
Loving you, you're out of range
Wanted to, you're out of range I don't want too much more than
Than to be reborn in the morning
Reborn so I can feel you
The thorns of Bougainvillea, I feel you I have your number and I dialed it up a hundred times
Barely there you're voice is cracking up a cross dead lines
Loving you, you're out of range
Wanted you, you're out of range Skies of ecstasy we're breaking while I do believe
The tears of God were falling down upon my swollen cheeks
Loving you, you're out of range
Wanted to, you're out of range I don't want too much more than
Than to be reborn in the morning
Reborn so I can feel ya
The thorns of Bougainvillea, I feel you I know it hurts when it's taken away
I tell you that I could be living
Today with you or without you, okay
Washed by the rain and it's all gonna change I don't want too much more than
Than to be reborn in the morning
Reborn so I can feel ya
The thorns of Bougainvillea, I feel you No sir, not too much more than
Than to be reborn in the morning
Reborn so I can feel ya
The thorns of Bougainvillea, I feel you
