Mvua Nyeusi

Fightstar

Her eyes are as white as the colour of her skin
And wondering how she never came to give this in
Most of the time, I want this game to end
How have I lost my only friend
When the sky is black and all I can see
Is a wave of raindrops,
You promised me you'd never leave me here.
Her mind is as green as the colour of the past and wondering how she ever came to win my heart

Most of the time, I want this game to end
How have I lost my only friend
When the sky is black and all I can see
Is a wave of raindrops,
You promised me you'd never leave me here.
[Solo]When the sky is black and all I can see
Is a wave of raindrops,
You promised me you'd never leave me here.
