From The Inside

Depswa

Without warning
Emotions tide in like a breaking wave
I can't remember yesterday
I don't recall ever being this way before'Cause I feel weak
Like a defenseless animal weak
Though my will is gone weak
As if I never really had any strength at allFrom the inside, I could feel myself lost in memory with you
And from the inside, I could feel myself paralyzed
And from the inside, I could feel a change coming over me with you
From the inside, I could feel myself spinning clarity with a memory of youWithin a glimpse
I can see my entire life
Flash before my eyes
Is this more than momentary thing?'Cause I feel weak
Like a defenseless animal weak
Though my will is gone weak
As if I never really had any strength at allFrom the inside, I could feel myself lost in memory with you
And from the inside, I could feel myself paralyzed
And from the inside, I could feel a change coming over me with you
From the inside, I could feel myself spinning clarity with a memory of youI'm lifted to the sky
And I feel all my boundaries falling away from me
And I'm lifted to the sky
As you bring out the better, better, better part of meFrom the inside, I could feel myself lost in memory with you
And from the inside, I could feel myself paralyzed
And from the inside, I could feel a change coming over me with you
From the inside, I could feel myself spinning clarity with a memory of youFrom the inside
From the inside
From the inside
