

Stranded

Alien Ant Farm

Your waves come crashing down
Like a semi auto trailer
I dive so deep in the sea
To avoid, killer whales A perfect moment here and gone
It has sailed
I use a hammerhead to drive a
Rusty nail inside I'm feelin' the sea beneath me, beneath you
I'm feelin' the sea beneath you, beneath me Imagine if our world was blue and weightless
I never meant to do wrong to you
Your my starfish You monotone's so low beyond me
A telepathic sub sonic frequency
I need a little air for emergency
You have to understand this urgency I'm feelin' the sea beneath me, beneath you
White sand beneath my feet, no brain between my ears
I'm feelin' the sea beneath you, beneath me
I know that if I had one, I'd spare us both these years I'm feelin' the sea beneath me, beneath you
White sand beneath my feet, no brain between my ears
Ya ha
I'm feelin' the sea beneath you, beneath me
I know that if I had one, I'd spare us both these years
Yea , ha A sea anemone, you're my enemy
(I'm feelin' the sea beneath me)
A sea anemone, you're my enemy
(I'm feelin' the sea beneath me)
A sea anemone, you're my enemy
(I'm feelin' the sea beneath me)
A sea anemone, you're my enemy
