

A Better Man

Nick Lowe

In my life Ive done things Im not proud of
And too often watched my dreams turn to sand
But it looks like I might have turned a corner
You make me want to be a better manTheres no new leaves left for me to turn over
Im in a prison built by my own hand
I pray, at last I found salvation
You make want to be a better manI cant go on livin' this way
And thats a fact, I know you understand
I dont know much but one things for certain
You make want to be a better man
