Plus Ones

Okkervil River

No one wants to hear about your 97th tear So dry your eyes or let it go uncried, my dear I am all out of love to mouth and to your ear And not above letting a love song disappear Before it's writtenAnd no one wants a tune about the 100th luftballoon That was seen shooting from the window of your room To be a spot against the sky's colossal gloom And land deflated in some neighbor's state that's strewn With ninety-nine othersEight Chinese brothers Well, there's a reason why the last is smiling wide And sitting higher than the others Swinging his armsYou would probably die before you shot up nine miles high Your eyes dilated as light played upon the sight Of TVC16 as it sings you goodnight Relaxed as hell and locked up in cell forty-five Well, I hope you're feeling better51st way to leave your lover Admittedly, it doesn't seem to be as gentle Or as clean as all the others

Even a scars all in the after hours of some Greenpoint barI told you, I can't listen, baby, 'bout the 4th time you were a lady

And how your forthrightness betrayed a secret shyness
Stripped away by days of being hailed as your highness
And what's new pussycat as you were once a lioness
They cut your claws outKitten, not everyone's keen on lighting candle 17
The party's done, the cake's all gone, the plates are clean
The chauffeur's near and full of cheerless mezzanine
And in just one year, this straight world could pay to see
What they have been missingYou were caught kissing eight Chinese brothers
Well, there's a reason why the last is smiling wide
And sitting higher than the others
Staking with charmAnd he says, lets get lost, let them send out alarms
He says, lets get crossed out and come to harm

Lets make the world's stupidest stand and truly mean it

Lets hit the limit of loss over lover's arms

No, lets exceed it
