

Hello

Jack Ingram

Hey, this Jack, thanks for buyin' "Live Wherever You Are"
A collection of songs we did live at Green Hall at the historic dance hall in Green Texas
A place where my musical heroes grew up, guess what, so did I
I love this live record and I've also got some studio stuff on here that I wanna play for ya
The first ones called "Wherever You Are", a song I did with Jeremy Stover
It's song about gettin' to where it is you need to be Doin' what you have to do, to get where you're supposed to be
In this case it's goin' through the storms, through the sleet
Through the rain, through the wind, doin' whatever it takes
To get "Whevever You Are"[Thanks to Georg for lyrics]
