

Unfit Earth

Napalm Death

Looking from outside inwards
A view to dumbfound the most outspoken minds Silent screams from an unfit earth
Battered and bruised with nowhere to hide Disasters man-made and natural Gradually pushing to absolute imbalance
On the scales of survival
Soon to tip in favour of extinction An unrelenting dioxin cloud
Propelled to dispel our oxygen
Slowly seizing up our lungs
Choking the ground we depend upon Silent screams from an unfit earth
Battered and bruised with nowhere to hide Transforming aquatic inhabitation
Overcome by cocktails of sludge and chemicals Interfering with life on which so many rely
It's dumping our shit to economise Wanton destruction, environment in regression
All reverse into decline, kiss this unfit goodbye, goodbye Silent screams from an unfit earth
A future of provocation with nowhere to hide
