Nowhere Now

Andrew Gold

I closed the door and half expected The party would be under way I'd have the single life perfected But the whole house was empty, That's when it hit meWho do I kiss goodnight? How come I sleep so late When did this bed get so wide Why can't I concentrate? What good's a brand new start After true love walks out? Where do I put my heart? Nowhere now, nowhere nowI made a slight miscalculation Of just how forgiving you would be Now there's a minor complication When I come home, I'm all aloneWho do I kiss goodnight? How come I sleep so late When did this bed get so wide Why can't I concentrate? What good's a brand new start After true love walks out? Where do I put my heart? Nowhere now, nowhere nowOur tragic disses A million kisses, Give or take a few No one to give them to Ahh Who do I kiss goodnight? How come I sleep so late When did this bed get so wide Why can't I concentrate? What good's a brand new start After true love walks out?
