

Peaches (Ft. Sleepy Brown, Scar)

OutKast

Stages in life, no one said that it was right

But I've got to hustle for the kids

God only knows what I've gone and been

'Til we reach the end

Just stay strong and be a friend I cram to understand why a woman and a man

Make a plan to enter matrimony, then he takes her hand

Put that ring on her finger, couple of kids in minivans

Standin' in the stands like a fan, watch her little man

Run ball...

And every time you see the family, they look happy

Got her mama and her daddy and I think they got a lil' dog

But daddy had her cat on the side

He would hide her from his ride, decide not to divide

Kept the yam in the (hide), the spouse in the house

Boy it's cheaper to keep her, you fuck around and take a loss

Come up short like Short Dog, cuss words flow like

(Motherfucker shit goddamn asshole)

Took my shit (Beeitch!) Fuck!

Stages in life, no one said that it was right

But I've got to hustle for the kids

God only knows what I've gone and been

'Til we reach the end

Just stay strong and be a friend It was the night that they done dipped and all throughout the palace

That didn't do his part heartbroke or no more marriage

When it happens, you'll be slappin' yourself rememberin'

You coulda remained boyfriend and girlfriend

Now you sittin' in the courthouse, plaintiff and defendant

Pleadin' to the judge you was in it to win it

In the beginnin' was splendid, see, she was grinnin'

And spendin' all of her time wit' the kids

An' in the kitchen, she'd cook

She was fierce on the stove, it was always great

Covered plates in the microwave when I came home late

But now we just debate like some candidates

Damn, I hate friction

Wishin' I had paperwork on the missus, but I didn't

Damn... fuckin' around

Stages in life, no one said that it was right

But I've got to hustle for the kids

God only knows what I've gone and been

'Til we reach the end

Just stay strong and be a friend

Girl you have to remember

I gotta provide for the family and future

So please stay down and please stay around

'Cause you know that I'm tryin'a change

But it's hard, 'cause I've been this way

Man, you already knew that shit

Stages in life, no one said that it was right

But I've got to hustle for the kids

God only knows what I've gone and been

'Til we reach the end

Just stay strong and be a friend
