

Push and Shove (feat. Justin Robertson)

Fatboy Slim

If one kiss led to another, baby
I'm ready to forgive you honey
There's a light that shines between us
And it's worth the crying, lady I was falling on sharp stones then
And my bones were cracking daily
No more weeping and lying now
And I'm holding you forever
And I'm holding you forever [Chorus]
Love love Lord above
Save us from the push and shove
Let us blend together
Find us and forgive us
Love love Lord above
Save us from the push and shove
Let us blend together
Find us and forgive us Time they say, is the great healer
But I believe in chemicals baby
When the waves come crashing in
We are closer now than ever
We are closer now than ever There was a cold space between us
Still we bridged that chasm lady
Desire love and friendship
We are sanctified together
We are sanctified together [Chorus] Love love Lord above
Save us from that push and shove
Love love Lord above
Save us from that push and shove
Love love Lord above
Save us from that push and shove
Love love Lord above
Save us from that push and shove
Love love Lord above
Love love Lord above
Love love Lord above
Save us from that push and shove [Chorus] Love
Love
Love
Love
