

Vigilante (OST Shameless)

Josh Tarp and The Still

Holed up, out of the city
Bounty on my head
I don't care if you call me brother
Nothing you say gonna bring me backHoled up, out of the city
Bounty on my head
I don't care if you call me brother
Nothing you say gonna bring me backI've got the same gun, with new bullets
A long line of my loose ends
I'm a trigger happy maniac
So tell me father
How many sins must I confessHoled up, out of the city
Bounty on my head
I don't care if you call me brother
Nothing you say gonna bring me backHoled up, out of the city
Bounty on my head
I don't care if you call me brother
Nothing you say gonna bring me backI've earned every thread from the gallows
Robbed the rich to feed the pure
When I'm swinging from a tree
Will you tell my daughter
I'm a holy vigilante in the devil's warHoled up, out of the city
Bounty on my head
I don't care if you call me brother
Nothing you say gonna bring me backHoled up, out of the city
Bounty on my head
I don't care if you call me brother
Nothing you say gonna bring me back
