Commandante

K-os

[Foreign Content]This is an ambush
Yo, check it
Lookin' at my watch it's about that time
To ascend with this art of Zen another rhyme
Manifested in the physical miracle MC-in'
Leading to a revolution solution is seeing
The mind as it rotates make no debate
When I regulate, all the gens will terminate
'Cause we cut and slice irrelevance to the bone
And decapitate rappers that idolize Al Capone
Or Jimmy Hoffa not a hip-hop poppa
Just a vigilante with the mic that I shot ya
Chopped up, beat 'em and we proceeded to rock tha
Bells movin' quite well, so we got 'em hopped up
Trained, raw, like Big Daddy Kane
Plus I'm born on the same day as Kurt Cobain
Rap Nirvana, call me the beat piranha
Without the drama, yeah
Don't get this wrong, this revolution song
Hoping the wind can blow your way for once
A man is truly dead when confident
That's why we're all still waiting here so long
Astrologically, I'm the water and the fish
Made a wish, now I'm stone-cold lyrical catalyst
I don't eat fish, chicken or hamburger
But I eat 40 emcees on a hot plate

God's great, magnificent and munificent
This is militant, in particular significant
To the people, masses, lower classes
Making the hardest of hard keloidal and flaccid
Contaminants with backstage laminate sheet
Unoriginal thoughts that's why we stay adamant
Which we perceive to alter the mind-state
Making time wait, holding us up for hostage
I lost it, somewhere back in '96
When it's safe I'll play the game, I'm back in the mix
With a brand-new bag of magic and pixie dust
Love hip-hop, pray it never turns into lust, take it out

Don't get this wrong, this revolution song
Hoping the wind can blow your way for once
A man is truly dead when confident
That's why we're all still waiting here so long
Hey
Hey
Hey
Don't get this wrong, this revolution song
Hoping the wind can blow your way for once
A man is truly dead when confident
That's why we're all still waiting here so long
Commandante, come back home
Commandante, come back home
Commandante, come back home
That's why we're all still waiting here so long
