

I Keep It To Myself

Wilko Johnson & Roger Daltrey

Well wait a minute baby, What you gonna do?
People call me crazy, But I want you.
Don't wanna get turned down,
Don't wanna push nobody round now.
Honey, how come you ever want another man's loving if it ain't no better than mine?
Anyway, I don't need help from anybody else,
I wanna be your lover, wanna keep it to myself. Well here comes another girl,
Ringing on a bell,
This girl, that girl, Well, well.
Don't follow no footsteps,
Don't wanna track nobody down now.
One girl sitting on a train that stands on platform number nine,
I ain't gonna tell anybody else,
She lives on the corner of I'll keep it to myself. You're laughing at the weather babe, but you're gonna be crying.
Any day you like babe Is the right time.
Somebody gonna tell you,
Somebody gonna put you down now,
It's a long time coming, but little by little I'll drive you outta my mind.
One day when you're by yourself, you need a little help,
You're gonna want my loving and I'll keep it to myself.
