

Fall Again (feat. Glenn Lewis)

Michael Jackson

Feels like a fire that burns in my heart
Every single moment that we spend apart
I need you around for every day to start
I haven't left you alone
There's something about you, I stare in your eyes
And everything I'm looking for I seem to find
All this time away is killing me inside
I need your love in my life I want to spend time till it ends
I want to fall with you again
Like we did when we first met
I want to fall with you again We fought in a battle, nobody won
And left ourselves a mountain to be overcome
You can't run away, the past is said and done
I need us to carry on I want to spend time till it ends
I want to fall with you again
Like we did when we first met
I want to fall with you again You'll try everything you never thought of before
When you live, when you love, and you give them your all
You can always give up some more
Nothing means anything unless you're here with me
I can breathe, I can bleed, I can die in my sleep
Cause you're always there in my dreams I want to spend time till it ends
I want to fall with you again
Like we did when we first met
I want to fall with you again I want to spend time till it ends
I want to fall with you again
Like we did when we first met
I want to fall with you again
