

Still

Jimmie's Chicken Shack

will you hold my heaven lovely star will not lose my way home in the dark hail a time for change and i am one idle man tears in time i will join you, yeah we are one when you see my muse why won't you know i hold tight to you still, still, still, still will you call out my name or make me wait i remember your face on last day i hear a soft distant tune holding still, there's so much life hell, live my dreams at night when i open my arms to you only to be awakened again i'm in my bed lying herestill(x4) i love you still still(x18)
