

Feel

Godhead

Never knew there was an ordinary way.

Never even seen the light of day.

Holding back from what I thought would bring me pain.

Only now I see was wrong again.I'm forever lost in thoughts within myself.

Never giving time to anyone else.

You take the only thing I hold to myself dear.

Now I see my future's crystal clear.Crossed the path of what was undetermined lives.

Killed the road to their salvation.

Now I hear them in the darkness as they cry.

I will never feel elation.Rid the past of all the wrong that I have made.

Or I'll take these actions to the grave.

Please forgive me all I wanted was to live.

Remorse is now the only thing I can give.
