

Matter of Time

Cartel

Here it goes again, put on that deserving tone
And don't forget that this was all your fault
It's breathing down your neck, you know you've got to let this go
You're such a wreck and now it starts to show 'Cause all you can't deny is all held inside
And when we go, we say goodbye
And then we run, we run away From all we can't deny is just a lie
And when we try to just get by
We just can't get, and past ourselves 'Cause where you are is where you'll be
Always wanting everything
It's all the same that you can't ignore
'Cause all you want is just to be more It's creeping up again
It's all to be considered
It's a game and you're not the winner
It's a haunting memory 'Cause all you can't deny is all held inside
And when we go, we say goodbye
And then we run, we run away From all we can't deny is just a lie
And when we try to just get by
We just can't get, and past ourselves 'Cause where you are is where you'll be
Always wanting everything
It's all the same, that you can't ignore
'Cause all you want is just to be more 'Cause who you are is who you'll be
And that is really everything
It's all the same that you can relate
'Cause what you want's not what you're getting It's just a matter of time
It's just a matter of time
It's just a matter of time
It's just a matter of time It's just a matter of time
'Til you know you'll be somebody tonight Where you are is where you'll be
And that is really everything
It's all the same that you can relate
'Cause what you want's not what you're getting It's just a matter of time
It's just a matter of time
