

Bleed (feat. Ross Childress)

The Everyday Losers

running out of control, slowly ripping my soul never needed them all or really anyone I will ruin your life, I will rush to survive been beaten to death by failing everyone don't fuck with me you wanna fight with me? you're gonna bleed you are haunting my kind in your smoke filled empire I've been slashed by you wire that you have wrapped around you're seeking your prey, whatever should be it won't be for me and I will overcome
