Gorgeous

Gene Loves Jezebel

In this town, where I'm from There's not a lot of things going on You've got to use a little imagination To get alongSo, you go to a bar and you Talk to your friends about girls and cars And even though you're bored They'll only go this farYou're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes, you are You hear a song, you spin around And you laugh as your feet hit the ground You feel like a celebration This time aroundSo, you go to a bar and you Talk to your friends about girls and cars And even though you're bored They'll only go this farYou're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes, you are You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes, you are You need a lover, oh, yes, you do You need a lover, nothing else is true You need a lover, I need you You need a lover, you'd make the dead dance too You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby Yes, you are You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me You're so gorgeous, baby That's what you areI need you, you need me I need you, yes, it's true, it's true You're so gorgeous, baby You're so gorgeous, save me
