

In Coma (Acoustic Version)

Dead Poetic

Im still stitching up the stabs you left
Weaving in and out slowly
I grow accustomed to the piercing flesh
And find evil in the holy And still I see the line
Between the stars, your scars and mine
And as this coarse thread pulls
I feel the veins of the frozen Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left
Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left A bad decision leaves me open and Im left here shuttered for days
If I could replay the words we said
Id see you all amazed And still its not enough
Save yourself and demonize us
And as your curtain draws
They see the tears of the fallen Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left
Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left
Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left
We have left Im not taking the fall for a spineless puppet
You play quiet and I wont fight it Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left
Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left
Stay in coma
Its the only defense we have left
We have left
