

Broken Man

Paul Young

If you feel the hurt is but a kiss away
Close your eyes and take it
And if you feel that pain can tear you in two
Go ahead and bear it You know the words he's gonna say
Still you sit and listen
And those tender words can melt this strong man's heart
Yours will learn a lesson And when you hear him say
"I don't want your love"
Try not to turn away A broken man almost died of a broken heart
A broken man, that's what I am
And when you think you've had enough
Just say stop, I understand You'll stop your tears from building up inside
Baby, stop your trembling hands And when you hear him say
"I don't want your love"
Try not to turn away A broken man almost died of a broken heart
A broken man, that's what I am
I'm a broken man

Songwriters

YOUNG, PAUL / KEWLEY, IAN Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>