Do You Not Feel Loved?

New Build

And as I'm shouting out your name
Do you not feel loved?
Now your lions are all tame
Do you not feel loved?
With me below and you above
Do you not feel loved?
Look downDo you not feel loved?Oh looking down low
For the fragments of the heart
Breaking as we go
Shifting out of frame
What remains when we partAnd as the partys shutting down
Do you not feel loved?
And when you've burned your paper crown
Do you not feel loved?
