Laughing Out Loud

As Friends Rust

Sometimes I'd like to know the insides of my wrists
Sometimes I'd like to do what does not happen after this
It's crazy, but it seems, nothing but let down
Down, down'Cuz I'm not doing any good
The me you know is fraught with flaw, I bet you wish I would
It's not crazy, it's just clear, I do nothing but let down
Down, downThat's another story for another time
Another valid feeling you can undermine
Another crooked notch carved in your valentine
I can hear you typing nowSometimes I'd like to know the insides of my wrists
Sometimes I'd like to do what does not happen after this
It's crazy, but it seems I do nothing but let down
Down, down'Cuz I'm not doing any good
The me you know is fraught with flaw, I bet you wish I would
It's not crazy, it's just clear, I do nothing but let down
Down, downThat's another story for another time
Another valid feeling you can undermine
Another crooked notch carved in your valentine
I can hear you typing nowThat's another story for another time
Another valid feeling you can undermine
Another crooked notch in your valentine
I can hear you typing nowYou're laughing out loud, yeah
You're laughing out loud, yeah
