Abducted

Enemy Reign

I knew right then that
I'd been abducted.
I knew right then that he would be takin my heart.

I knew right then no on was above him.
I knew right then that
He would be breakin my heart.

He tore me apart, because
I really loved him.
He took my hearth away and left me to bleed out, bleed out...

He broke my heart because I really loved him. He took it all away and left me to bleed out, bleed out.

(I knew right then that she'd been abducted. I knew right then that I would be takin her heart.
I knew right then that i'd never love her. The reason I hope the dream hasn't left her scarred)

He tore me apart because
I really loved him.
He took my heart away and left
me to bleed out, bleed out.

He broke my heart because
I really loved him.
He took it all away and left me
to bleed out, bleed out.

He tore me apart because
I really loved him.
He took my heart away and left

me to bleed out, bleed out.

He broke my heart because
I really loved him.
He took it all away and left me
to bleed out, bleed out.
