Promised Land

Direct Hit!

Tell your sons and your daughters we'll reach the promised land
Tell your sons and your daughters we've got the keys in hand
That's what we taught her - It's all just chemistry, bottled up pure energy Tell your sons and daughters that nothing's permanent and we'll flow like water til our bodies are spent... oh noTell your sons and your daughters we're not gonna sleep at night
Tell your sons and your daughters we'll walk til we see the light
But what we taught her is that it's all just rocketry?
Try it, swallow once and you'll see
Tell your sons and daughters they'll wake up better for it
Long as we march whether it's clear or it's pouringSo walk, pausing to rest is boring
We don't talk
Gone cause it's the best when you're ignoring
Everyone halting to rest is boring
We don't stop cause it's the best to go exploring
Walk on, pausing to rest is boring
We don't talk
Gone cause it's the best when you're ignoring
Everyone halting to rest is boring
We don't stop cause it's the best to go exploring(baba baba dadada baba dadada dadada)
(baba baba dadada baba dadada dadada)Tell your sons and your daughters we've got no time to waste
Tell your sons and you daughters come along, pick up the pace
It's getting harder
They don't know what high is yet
How detached do you think we can get?
Now your sons and daughters know nothings permanent
And we'll duck and cover once our supply is spent(baba baba dadada baba dadada dadada)
(baba baba dadada baba dadada dadada)
Walk on, pausing to rest is boring
We don't talk
Gone cause it's the best when you're ignoring
Everyone walking confess you're snoring
So let's stop, mark where you dropped and go exploringWalk on pausing to rest is boring
We don't talk
Gone cause it's the best when you're ignoring
Everyone halting to rest is boring
We don't stop cause it's the best to go exploring
