Whenever

The Cliks

Girl, you can't imagine the way I feel today
I feel like a miracle has finally come my way
And I've waited oh, so long to find a girl like you
And now that you're in my life
You've made all my dreams come true
Whenever you want me
I will be right there for you, do anything you want me to
Whenever you need me
I will be right by your side, forever 'til the end of time
Whenever you want me
Anytime you're feeling blue, I'll be there to comfort you
Whenever you need me
I will be right by your side, forever 'til the end of time
You are so beautiful, you take my breath away
Whenever I see you smile, it brightens up my day
There's no place I'd rather be than right here by your side
Holding you in my arms, feeling your heart beat next to mine
Whenever you want me
I will be right there for you, do anything you want me to
Whenever you need me
I will be right by your side, forever 'til the end of time
Whenever you want me
Anytime you're feeling blue, I'll be there to comfort you
Whenever you need me
I will be right by your side forever 'til the end of time
And every breath I take is filled with love for you
And every move I make, I do it all for me and you
You are my lover and you are my best friend
And you know I'm down for you
By your side through thick and thin
Whenever you want me
I will be right there for you, do anything you want me to
Whenever you need me
I will be right by your side, forever 'til the end of time
Whenever you want me
Anytime you're feeling blue, I'll be there to comfort you
Whenever you need me
I will be right by your side, forever 'til the end of time
Whenever you want me

I will be right there for you, do anything you want me to
Whenever you need me
I will be right by your side
