

Candles

Brad

Breathe a little bit
Breathe a little bit for me now
Dance a little bit
Dance a little bit for me now And when the storm comes late
And turns out the lights
There is no need to worry
Everything is alright You've got your dog and your blanket
And your candles for light
I said now, baby
Everything's gonna be alright Give a little bit
Give a little piece of your heart
Dance around now, baby
Dance around and play the part Make your grandma happy
Make your [Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible] And when the storm comes late
And turns out the lights
There is no need to worry
Everything is alright You've got your dog and your blanket
And your candles for light
Yeah, yeah everything will be alright
