Jaywalker

Hauteville

Yeah, jelly baby,
You got your pink stilettos on,
Studs in your vintage denim mini,
All over cosmopolitanHey, cherry soda,
With skull and crossbone on your arm,
Poses a face that's made in China,
They dig your pictures in JapanOh, my, she has a passion for electric,
Loves 5th avenue,
And blowing bubble chewing gum
Everybody loves her, she's so cool
Everybody wants to be her fool
Everybody knows her name but she's just my Jaywalker,
And I'm a fool for youCome, jelly baby,
I'll put a diamond on your tongue,
I'll put a stone on your middle finger,
I'll make The Beatles sing our song.Oh, my, she has a passion for a twinster,
Loves all things yellow,
She's getting high on marshmallows.Everybody loves her, she's so cool
Everybody wants to be her fool
Everybody knows her name but she's just my Jaywalker,
And I'm a fool for youEverybody loves her, she's so cool
Everybody wants to be her fool
Everybody knows her name but she's just my Jaywalker,
And I'm a fool for youJaywalker
Jaywalker
JaywalkerEverybody loves her, she's so cool
Everybody wants to be her fool
Everybody knows her name but she's just my JaywalkerEverybody loves her, she's so cool
Everybody wants to be her fool
Everybody knows her name but she's just my Jaywalker
