

Unfold Remix

Aztek

Cover my thoughts in gold
I'm your flower watch me unfold
My vulnerability, letting you consume me
The parts of me the eyes can't see
They're glowing underneath
Picking off the petals
I'll let you if you're gentle
Hey
Watch me unfold
Watch me unfold
Watch me unfold
Hey
Watch me unfold
Watch me unfold
Watch me
Hey
He says that I'm glowing
Hey
He says that I'm glowing
This kind of love we can't control
The art of touch, I am covered in gold
I know that you feel me now
No I'm never going down
The parts of me buried underneath
They're glowing, do you see?
I know that you feel me now
No I'm never going down
Hey
Watch me unfold
Watch me unfold
Watch me unfold
Hey
Watch me unfold
Watch me unfold
Watch me
Hey
He says that I'm glowing
Hey
He says that I'm glowing

The kind of love we can't control
the kind of love we can't control
the kind of love we can't control
the kind of love we can't control
