

Drive You Home

Parachute

You won't cry
Standing on the porch because you said goodbye
Told him you were leaving
Now you're high and dry
You had nowhere else to go
I open up the door
And let you come inside You didn't mean it
He's gonna ask where you've been
Before you go back
Baby let me tell you this When it's over
And the thrill is gone
If you come back
And you've got it wrong
You know that you don't have to leave
You don't have to go
When it's over
Let me drive you home
Let me drive you home Summer heat
Staring at the ceiling but I just can't sleep
Wondering what you're doing when it comes to me
There's nothing I can do
It's always up to you
Yes and I lie awake in bed at night
I picture you when I close my eyes
I can see you there
In the porch
In the light
I might never feel your kiss
But baby let me tell you this When it's over
And the thrill is gone
If you come back
And you got it wrong
You know that you don't have to leave
You don't have to go
When it's over
Let me drive you home
Let me drive you home Baby cause I need to know
Do you feel it?
Can you feel it?

Baby cause I need to know
Is it real?When it's over
And the thrill is gone
If you come back
And you got it wrong
You know that you don't have to leave
You don't have to go
When it's over
Let me drive you home
Let me drive you home
Let me drive you home
