The Fall-Outs

Pornography

Well, I pretend I can't hang up the phone
'Cause if I do then he gets you
And I'll be in this room alone
    Staring at the carpet
    Wondering how they made it
And you would say I should not be afraid
    I'm better off alone and free
    'Cause no one can put up with me
    And your mom don't like me either
    Now I don't have to meet her
        You and me
        We end up in catastrophe
    But I have got one more thing to add
    Okay, so I'm a jerk and I'm a weirdo
    And even if I'm lucky I'll amount to zero
    But I thought that you'd love me anyway
        I'm so not even worth it
        But baby, no one's perfect
    Yeah, I thought that you'd love me anyway
        Anyway
    You're not the type of girl who takes advice
        Still all that shit your parents said
        Still bouncing round inside your head
    "You two will never make it, if you build it, he will break it"
        You and me
        They sum us up so poignantly
    But I have got one more thing to add
    Okay, so I'm a jerk and I'm a weirdo
    And even if I'm lucky I'll amount to zero
    But I thought that you'd love me anyway
        I'm so not even worth it
        But baby, no one's perfect
    Yeah, I thought that you'd love me anyway
        Anyway
        Maybe you'll never play the guitar
    And maybe you'll never sing in harmony with me
        Maybe you can't rock the AC/DC
Well, hell still ain't a bad place to be if you're with me

Anyway

Okay, so I'm a jerk and I'm a weirdo
And even if I'm lucky I'll amount to zero
But I thought that you'd love me anyway

I'm so not even worth it

But baby, no one's perfect

Yeah, I thought that you'd love me anyway

Anyway

And the end goes like this
