

New Calm, Pt. 2

Ought

Oh I love this oneHear me now that I am dead inside
Hear me now that I am dead inside
Hear me now that I am dead inside
That's the refrainWho put all of the white keys on the piano?
Yeah, who built a house just to lock me out
Who started a fire, yeah that one over there?
Who invited Paul Simon? I didn't invite him
Here we goAnd that's the part where we all sing together now
Hear me now
Just a little more to the left
I think we're all really feeling this together now
To the leftAlright everybody now
Okay let's shake it down here just a littleOkay, work it on down
You and I are gonna walk it on downYou gave me your calm
And I gave it away, now now now
You gave me your calm
And I gave it away, now now now
You gave me your calm
And I gave it away, now now now
You gave me your calm
Hands to the side, to the leftYou gave me your calm
And I gave it away, now now now
You gave me your calm
And I gave it away, now now now
You gave me your calm
And I gave it away, now now nowHere we are
All feeling this together nowHear me now that I am dead inside
Yes, hear me now that I am dead inside

Yes

I think we're all really feeling this together now
And you remember how it goes
I think we are feeling this together nowAnd you take it
And you take it
And you take it
And you take it
Let's go around nowHear me now that I am dead inside
That's the re-
