

Lost Again

Clifford T. Ward

Lost again, your dreams all turned and tossed again
And mine all double crossed again - in the same old way
You won, I'm lost again. Lost again, I'm on my own - washed up again
All alone, mixed up again - in the same old way
You won, I'm lost again. It's the same old feeling tonight
Me on my own -
And lovin' you still out of sight - I'm - Lost again, standing down - nonplussed again
Broken down, mistrust again - in the same old way
You've won, I'm lost again. INSTRUMENTAL It's the same old feeling tonight
Me on my own -
And lovin' you still out of sight - I'm - Lost again, standing down - nonplussed again
Broken down, mistrust again - in the same old way
You've won, I'm lost again.
