

See Me in Shadow (Acoustic)

Delain

Standing in the shadow of our lies
To hide our imperfections
Doing anything we can to hide
Eyes wide open but still blind
To see what really matters
And insecurity won't go
See me in shadowsStanding by the ruins of your soul
That cries for some more meaning
Wondering when you have
Become so coldSo cold
And all the pictures of your past are gone
So cold, so cold
Forget yourself
And who you are
Another life is not that farStanding by the paintings of your dreams
But you have awoken
And all the purples and the greens
Have turned to black
And the ruins of your soul
Have died, no more meaning
I wonder when you have
Become so coldSo cold
And all the pictures of your past are gone
So cold, so cold
Forget yourself
And who you are
Another life is not that farNot that far
