Downer

Fireside

Trace me where I'm heading Cover me with broken blankets
Show me things that can't be seen Just like my reflections
Close the door
So that I won't be afraidIt's my turn, to be burned on a stick
If you'd ask
I would've passed,
but it's too lateIt's not my fault It's normal to see people in a different way
It's just like a circle
Please don't fall
Give it the canOpen all the windows, so that I won't be afraid
