

Feels Good to Be High

WALK THE MOON

When a lightning bolt strikes on a clear blue sky, I'm chilling
When the good times roar at the speed of light, I'm chilling
When they're cramping my style with the dollar sign, I'm chilling
When I'm jonesing for you in the waiting line I'm chilling, chilling I'm feeling love, I feel alive

Don't care how, don't know why

I feel the wave building up

I'm chilling

Now tell me do you feel that rush? Feels good to be high

High

Feels good to be alive

Alive

Feels good to be high

High

Feels good to be alive

Alive

If you could be high for the rest of your life, you'd be chilling

You probably want that rush but I'll give it time, I'm chilling

'Cause we'll be riding that vibe till

The day we die, but I'm chilling, chillin'

Until our heart goes flat on the thin red line

We'll be chillin' I'm feeling love, I feel alive (ease under pressure)

Don't care how, don't know why

I feel the wave building up (ease under pressure)

I'm chilling

Now tell me do you feel that rush? Feels good to be high

High

Feels good to be alive

Alive

Feels good to be high

High

Feels good to be alive

Alive

Ooh, the slow motion of it

Caught up in the motion of it

The pressure to be perfect, perfect

"Why's it matter if doesn't make my heart go...?" (Close your eyes the wave is just about to break) Feels good to be high

High (Embrace the unknown)

Feels good to be alive

Alive

Feels good to be high (Completely weightless)

High (Completely Free)

Feels good to be alive (Close your eyes)

Alive (The wave is just about to break)
