Indonesia

August Burns Red

This plane is going down in flames and this time
There's no black box to capture your last words
A situation we can't make any sense of Sacrifice costs all of us everythingThis is the time to turn down our heads and turn up our hearts
There's no scale to balance this out

Some say may those who curse days, curse this day

There's no scale to balance this outHow does a man wrap his mind around eternity

When he can't even explain his own composition?

Don't you see it's bigger than you?He sleeps in the mountains of Indonesia

And the white on his flag brings colors to shame colors to shame

And the white on his flag brings colors to shame, colors to shame He sleeps in the mountains of Indonesia

And the white on his flag brings colors to shame, colors to shameThe earth will swallow the water

The clouds refill the oceans

The earth will swallow the water and spit out
The clouds will refill, refill the oceansThe earth will swallow the water and spit out
The clouds will refill, refill the oceans
Humble and brokenThis plane crashed down in flames
With a man who lived, who died to better this world
David, rest in peaceHe sleeps in the mountains of Indonesia
And the white on his flag brings colors to shame, colors to shame
He sleeps in the mountains of Indonesia
And the white on his flag brings colors to shame, colors to shame
