

I Hold On (Feat. Kid Rock)

Slash

I feel your comfort in my dreams
Unprotected silent screams
Light beyond your shadow beams
Still I don't know what it means When seasons change
Memories remain I hold on cause I won't let go
Even though I know there's solitude below
I hold on cause I can't let go
I refuse to let the hands of fate unfold
I hold on And when the darkness turns today
I won't let you drift away
Conscience fades and some let go
But I hang on cause I know When seasons change
Memories remain I hold on cause I won't let go
Even though I know there's solitude below
I hold on cause I can't let go
I refuse to let the hands of fate unfold
I hold on I hold on cause I won't let go
Even though I know there's solitude below
I hold on cause I can't let go
I refuse to let the hands of fate unfold No, no
I refuse to let the hands of fate unfold
I hold on
I hold on
I refuse to let the hands of fate unfold
I hold on
