Even In the Rain (feat. Eleanor Friedberger)

The Fiery Furnaces

You wore your wrestling badge from your wrestling match
You wore a t-shirt over your suit that says you just won State I guess I still don't mind that you were late
I guess we must have done a lot of kissing Must have known not what we were missingShe followed us to the motel and I lied
all the way
I rode on the back of your bike all the way
to Lake Geneva
I let you wear the helmet even though you never offered anywayEven in the rainThis could be the day the earth stood still Take it from me I know we've had our fill Never been this calm as I wander round Never bring harm to those that I surroundWell I keep consuming to avoid my own thoughts, they tell me Love keeping busy, love keeping busy at any old cost But there's nothing I could say would keep my mind off of you Well there's nothing I could do to keep my mind from thinking of youEven in the rain She followed us to the motel and I lied
all the way
I rode on the back of your bike all the way
to Lake Geneva
I let you wear the helmet even though you never offered anywayEven in the rain
