One Way Or Another

Kate Voegele

I can tell by the way you've been yelling her name
That it's more than a friendly game
With a smile and that Im-gonna-fight-to-the-death
Expression in her eyeYou think I'm so dramatic
Just imagining again
You come to her defense
Insisting that she's innocentWell, excuse me for wanting to be
The one and only lock that fits your key
Oh, you believe there's nothing up her sleeve
But baby, well, just wait and seeYou say that love is blind, well, I say open up your eyes
She's a mastermind, she'd cheat and lie to get you to love her
Who's the victim if it doesn't make a difference yet?
I'll be gone one way or anotherTake a minute to see it from my side of things
Don't you think you would feel the same?
Like you still gotta play for the victory in a game
You won yesterdayI shouldn't have to fight
For something that's already mine
But her pursuit of you
Has undermined my peace of mindBut it's no use crying to you
You're who her plan has done the damage to What's done is done, I should just hold my tongue
But someone has got me outdoneYou say that love is blind, well, I say open up your eyes
She's a mastermind, she'd cheat and lie to get you to love her
Who's the victim if it doesn't make a difference yet?
I'll be gone one way or anotherYou're going under, yeah
And baby, it's no wonder, no, no
Cause she's stepping up her game
She's making you a prisoner of her hall of fameShe's looking for a winner for her trophy case
And you need to consider what you think you deserve
Is that all that you're worth?
No, no, no, no, noYou say that love is blind, well, I say open up your eyes
She's a mastermind, she'd cheat and lie to get you to love her
Who's the victim if it doesn't make a difference yet?
I'll be gone one way or anotherYou say that love is blind, well, I say open up your eyes
She's a mastermind, she'd cheat and lie to get you to love her
Who's the victim if it doesn't make a difference yet?
I'll be gone one way or anotherI'll be gone one way or another
I'll be gone one way or another
