

Among the Leech

Liblikas

Woke up on the field,
my eyes are turning green.
Is it growing just for growing?
Is it growing here for me?
The sky seems so shy.
Are you ashamed 'cause of me?
That your only son forgot to obey. Bite the fingers of the hands that build.
Gonna' use my own arms instead.
Ditch you dug for me,
was it just so you could see
how man survives alone
among the leech.
Boy picks up the weapon,
father's eyes are turning proud
Is he killing just for killing?
Is he killing to kill me?
The sky seems so shy,
don't feel ashamed 'cause of me.
If I'm your only son,
shining sun my only queen.
Bite the fingers of the hands that build.
Gonna' use my own arms instead.
Ditch you dug for me,
was it just so you could see
how man survives alone
among the leech.
