

The Badge (From Original Soundtrack "The Crow")

Pantera

young and dumb, truth and justice, fantasy fresh out of the academy five-time loser bust his head, make your day unless you're paid off then you look away do you think this corruption will ever stop what makes a person want to be a cop ran a red light, storm the house and bust the guy do you like to see his children cry pick up a hooker and take her for a little ride but get sucked off on the side sworn to serve and protect, forget the killing badge-wearing fascist villain pissed in the street, you bust the guy do you like to see his children cry the badge means you suck a child lies there dead as you look back, what goes through your head young and tough, truth and justice, fantasy
fresh out of the academy
unless you're paid off then you look away he burned a flag, storm the house and bust the guy do you like to see his children cry ran a red light, take her for a little ride but get sucked off on the side the badge means you suck
as you look back, what goes through your head talk to them, you can work it out you better not even try it you make a play for his gun they'll kill you say it was a riot RIIIIIIIIOOOOOOOOOOTTTTTT what's behind the badge
