Sunshine Sunshine

James Taylor

Sounds of laughter here comes sunshine
Smiling faces all around
They possess you, bless you sunshine
Now you can never let them down, I say sunshine
Sunshine, sunshine is that a cloud across your smile
Or did you dream again last night
It's best you rest inside a while
As blue doesn't seem to suit you right
Things ain't what they used to be
I say pain and rain and misery
Illness in the family
And sunshine means a lot to me, I say sunshine
But could it be sunshine is drifting with midnight
And lonely when everyone's gone
Blue crystal spirits and gardens in moonlight
Leave weak alone and bleak all quiet and gray by dawn
Sunshine sunshine rising to late to chase the cold
And failing to change the frost to dew
She's trading her mood of yellow gold
For frost bitten shades of silver, blue
Friends and lovers past and gone Lord
And no one waiting further on
I'm running short of things to be
And sunshine means quite a lot to me
I say sunshine, woah sunshine
